

THE PEACE AND LOVE FESTIVAL WORK CAMP 30 June - 5 July 2015

PeaceWorks Sweden have the honour to invite 5 international volunteers to be part of the yearly Peace and Love Festival (P&L) in Borlänge, Sweden. P&L is a music festival based on the concept of Diversity, Understanding and Solidarity attracting more than 20 000 of visitors each year. Top musicians and artists from Sweden and all over the world are performing and lots of exciting activities and workshops are held during this three day long festival.

The P&L organisers are looking for 5 international volunteers dedicated to spreading their culture and to motivate young people to participate in activities related to democracy, human rights and diversity. Their main working area will be around the "Action Square" which is an arena for young people to express themselves and for spreading knowledge about other cultures and perspectives of the world.

Where?

Borlänge, Sweden.

When?

Tuesday 30th of June – Sunday 5th of July 2015.

Participation fee.

200€ to be paid in cash to the work camp coordinator upon arrival in Borlänge.

Arrival.

Borlänge central station 2 pm on Tuesday 30th of June. See travel indications below. A team of PeaceWorks members and P&L coordinators will receive the volunteer group at the central station to introduce and welcome them.

Departure.

Sunday evening around 4.30 pm you will be able to leave the camp. Book your return flight ticket later in the evening, not earlier than 8 pm.

Volunteers' profile.

The volunteer is expected to be social and have the ability to actively make contact with people like and be able to work in a group and cooperate love organizing and taking initiatives to create social activities be eager to learn about other cultures be socially sensitive to different cultures and different people have a good level of English to be able to talk, explain and understand the visitors and the co-workers.

arrange their own trip to and from the work camp.

Age.

16-25 years old.

Tasks of the volunteer.

Establish the Action Square arena together with other volunteers; decorate, install tents and equipment and other practical things.

Engage and invite festival visitors to take part of the Action Square activities.

Dismantle the area (Sunday) and help cleaning up.

The participants are expected to work in one or two groups depending on the activities.

Independently invent, make and manage workshops and activities related to the themes of the festival.

Volunteers are expected to be at the Action Square-area and active during their working shifts.

There will be a budget to buy some material for your activities, if you would need it for the workshops for example. Volunteers will be received by a P&L coordinator and also by a PeaceWorks coordinator who will introduce them to the work camp, the festival and to the organisation of PeaceWorks.

Accommodation.

Dormitory shared with other participants and volunteers. Shared bathrooms and showers.

What to bring?

Sleeping bag and sleeping mat/camping mattress. Comfortable clothing, water proof shoes, warm jacket or sweater, rain poncho or jacket, towel and swim wear (if you want to take a dip in a Swedish lake!).

Food.

Breakfast, lunch and dinner is provided every day. Please report to PeaceWorks Sweden if you have any food allergies.

Rules and guidelines.

The volunteer should follow the rules and regulations of Swedish law and is expected to follow P&L organisers' rules of the work camp.

Alcohol.

The use of alcohol will not be permitted during working shifts and/or in and around the Action Square area.

The use of alcohol under the age of 18 is forbidden.

The use of drugs is strictly forbidden. Volunteers that do not comply with the above mentioned rules will be expelled from the work camp.

Availability for persons with functional variations.

The festival area is adjusted to visitors using a wheelchair. However, the organisers cannot guarantee that accommodation will be adapted to all functional varieties.

PeaceWorks

Other useful things to know.

Volunteers arrange their own travel and tickets to and from Sweden.

Volunteers are recommended to arrange their own travel insurance.

Members and volunteers from PeaceWorks Sweden will be present at the P&L Festival in the PeaceWorks tent close to the Action Square.

After work shifts you will be able to go to concerts and join other activities of the festival.

Read more about PeaceWorks Sweden at www.peaceworks.se

Read more about Peace and Love Festival at: <http://peaceandlove360.se/>

How to get there.

By plane and train. The closest international airport is Stockholm Arlanda airport, situated 2,5 hours north west of Stockholm. From Arlanda airport there are trains to Borlänge C. For information and to buy a train ticket to Borlänge C, please visit: www.sj.se (click the flag for English). You need to buy the train ticket online. If you buy a train ticket at Arlanda airport it can be very expensive and there is a risk there are no tickets left.

Buy the train tickets online early to avoid high prices. You can find reduced prices for students/youth. Be sure to bring your ID or passport.

If flights to Stockholm are too pricy try other airports like Malmö, Göteborg or Copenhagen (Denmark). From these cities you can go by train/bus to Borlänge. For trains: www.sj.se. For buses: www.bus4you.se or www.nettbuss.se. Please, be sure to have in mind the time between connecting flights and trains.

How and when to apply.

Last date to apply for the Peace and Love Festival Work Camp is Wednesday the 28th of May.

Send your Motivation letter (400 words) and Application form to kajsa.stenberg@peaceworks.se.

