背景

The organization in charge of the work camp is the "Grup d'Esplai Vidrerenc": a group of volunteers of the same village - Vildres - who organize different leisure activities throughout the year for kids and youth.

The work camp is part of their summer programme and Its main objectives correspond to supporting the growth of kids and young people by contributing to their development as human beings.

Being fully able and actively integrated with the civic society in a creative way offering them the correct tools for realizing themselves in whatever field that they wish to.

活動内容

The work camp will take place in the St. Iscle Castle, in Vidreres. Participants will have the opportunity to learn and share an experience in a multicultural environment for two weeks while acquiring archaeological and cultural knowledge and at the meantime enjoying the wildlife of the surrounding area in the respect of the nature.

The main task for the participants of this work camp consists in putting in place some excavation and restoring activities in the remaining areas around the St. Iscle Castle. The technical work of the project will be in a full archaeological excavation that aims to restore and rehabilitate the chosen area.

The work will be organized as follows: small groups of young people will be made, part of which, on a rotating basis, will do tasks of cleaning and classification of the archaeological material, while the rest will dig each of the sectors described.

Participants will be provided with the necessary tools and the archeologists that will support them and will teach them the necessary methodology for excavating and restoring the ruins, and the participants also will make drawings and photographs of the different structures.
