場所・レジヤ

Isle is a French town located in the department of Haute-Vienne in the New Aquitaine region, bordering the town of Limoges (famous for its porcelain, but rich in history and heritage).

The commune benefits from an exceptional living environment where nature is omnipresent. In the town centre, flowery gardens, green spaces and leisure facilities are to be discovered alongside local shops and services. Just a few minutes' walk away, Isle has a rural protected area shaped by the two valleys of the Vienne and Aurence rivers. Woods, clearings and fields, there are the several castles and manor houses that together make up the town, with an urban dynamism offered by the town of Limoges, 5 minutes away.
